PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

This important document reached here at 15 minutes before 12 o'clock, and was placed in the hands of our compositors immediately. At half past 1 it was in type. We publish it as soon as it can be issued, without awaiting our afternoon telegraphic report.

The message is so worded that the occasion demands, and such as was expected from President Lincoln.

If any important news comes by telegraph we shall issue an extra.

From the Second Regiment.

CAMP NEAR WASHINGTON, July 1st, 1861.

Editors GAZETTE.—It is estimated that there are about 3000 troops arriving daily in the city, who go into camp within three miles of the capital.

If what everybody says is true the second Wisconsin regiment "takes them all down." We are encamped along side of the Texas rangers, a noble body of cavalry. They quarter here through the day, and at night go to Alexandria, to serve as picket guards. They "pick up" some of the rebels every night and lodge them in jail.

The view from the top of the capital is very grand. A large extent of beautiful country can be seen, and in the midst of it one hundred thousand soldiers are encamped. Their white tents can be seen scattered for miles on either side of the city.

There was an alarm the other night which called us all out. The signal was three guns and the ringing of the bell. "You'd better believe" the Wisconsin boys were out, in line of battle mighty quick. The alarm was without cause, but the promptness with which the troops turned out shows that we are ready for Jeff. Davis, or any other man.

It was not true that our regiment was attacked in Baltimore, as we passed through, as has been reported. We were well prepared for an attack, having received our arms at Harrisburg; they were loaded and armed. But I saw little excitement on the street as we marched through the city. At one corner were gathered about 400 Union men and women, who sang the "Star Spangled Banner" for our benefit.

The army is kept drilling very thoroughly. The most animated sight is the drill of the flying artillery, whose evolutions are very astonishing to those not accustomed to them. I have seen them load their cannon upon the horses were upon a full run, stop and fire, and on they would go, and in a few minutes would be half a mile away, ready for another fire.

It is my turn to cook for our mess, and I must stop and get them supper.

A. E. L.

Mad Dog.—A dog evidently rabid passed through Main street, going north, last night about six o'clock. He was a large brown mastiff, apparently a farmer's dog, and bit a number of dogs as he went on his way. He was pursued, but managed to conceal himself in the neighborhood of the railroad bridge. There is not the slightest doubt in the minds of all who saw the animal that he was mad, and measures should be immediately taken to secure all the dogs running loose in the city from doing harm. Let the proper officers attend to it without delay.

We learn that a rabid dog was seen on the east side of the river, below the Blind Institute, yesterday afternoon. He bit two dogs belonging to Mr. J. G. Alden and Mr. Davis, who immediately killed them. Perhaps the dog seen in the city was the same one, and if so, he must have done considerable damage on his way up to this city. People on the river road, on the east side, should look to the matter and secure their dogs or kill them, which is the most certain way of disposing of them.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. Mr. Anderson from Chicago, will preach in the Congregational church to-morrow morning, at the usual hour of service.

THE ARMY BEEF CONTRACT.—We observe that a rumor prevails in Chicago that Hugh Maher, who, lately took the contract to supply beef for the army in Washington, is likely to make a failure and throw up his contract.—Cleveland Herald.

Mr. Maher has not thrown up his contract, nor is he likely to make a failure. He is, and has been for two weeks, buying cattle for the government.—Chicago Journal.

BETTER.—Anybody knowing the whereabouts of Edward Butler, of Huron Co., O., will confer a great favor upon his brother, John M. Butler, of Albany, New York, by advising him of the same. The said Edward Butler left Ohio for California some six years ago, and has not been heard from since. Western papers please copy.

Queen Victoria's insanity is no longer doubted. Dr. Schellin has been sent to London to attend a consultation of English, French and German physicians on the state of her health.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, July 5.

Wm. S. King, of Minnesota, was elected postmaster. The message was read, and that part recommending 400,000 men and $140,000,000 was received with applause on the republican side and in galleries. Other portions were similarly greeted.

On motion of Mr. Stevens the message and accompanying documents were referred to committee of the whole on the state of the Union.

The Nebraska contested election case was discussed and an informal effort made to substitute Mr. Morton for Mr. Dailey. Finally the latter was sworn in.

Mr. Stevens gave notice of introduction of a bill to repeal all laws creating ports of entry in second states, also a bill for holding a United States court in Wheeling, Va. Mr. Van Wyck asked leave to introduce a bill providing for the transmission of letters for officers and soldiers free of postage. Mr. Burnett being opposed to the franking privilege objected. Adjourned.

Mr. Chandler gave notice he should to-morrow introduce a bill to confiscate property of all governors of states, members of legislatures, judges of courts, all military officers who are at rank of lieutenant, who shall take a part against the government of the United States, and to disqualify them from holding offices of trust under the government.

Such property to be applied to restore to Union men in rebel states any losses they may have suffered.

The resignation of the clerk of senate sent in yesterday was Jas. Nicholson, not Mr. Dickens.

House.—Mr. Crittenden appeared and took the usual oath.

Ex-Congressman Ball, of Ohio, was elected sergeant at arms.

Goodnow, of New York, was elected door-keeper. Rev. Mr. Stocketon was elected chaplain.

Fort Monroe, July 5.

A flag of truce was brought to the British camp from Norfolk. He was desirous of visiting Baltimore regarding British vessels in trouble there.

Commodore Stringham refused, saying flags of truce had been abused enough already.

WASHINGTON, July 5.

The Garibaldians crossed into Virginia to-day.

The federal troops are now within ten miles of Fairfax Court house.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE.—Our report yesterday of the proceedings of the house of representatives was very incomplete. We publish them as we find them in the report of the Chicago Journal:

House.—The clerk called the roll including the names from South Carolina, Arkansas and Florida.

Mr. McClelland protested against Mr. Thayer being called as a member from Oregon.

Mr. Shiel's bill was passed over. Mr. Vallandigham gave notice of a question of privilege objecting to Marston, Blair and Curtis claiming seats, they having been sworn in as military officers. Mr. Blair denied having been sworn into the military service.

Mr. Richardson objected to the recognition of Mr. Dailey, from Nebraska.

The clerk announced that 150 members had answered the roll call.

Mr. Coffey declined being considered a candidate for speaker.

Mr. Hickman nominated Frank Blair. [Applause in galleries.]

Mr. McClelland wished to stop the noise in galleries.

Mr. Stephens nominated Mr. Grow. The ballot was then taken resulting in no choice.

Mr. Blair withdrew his name, and another ballot resulted: whole number 130; Grow 55, Blair 11, Crittenden 12, rest scattering.

Mr. Grow, on taking the chair, made an address, and took the oath, administered by Mr. Washburn of Illinois.

The members were then sworn in. A resolution was passed providing, passing over those objected to until members were duly qualified.

Mr. Burnett offered a resolution referring the question of the right to seats claimed by several of the committee on elections, after the committee is appointed.

Mr. Stevens raised a point of order. Mr. Burnett should first call for certificates, and then proceed in proper order.

Mr. Burnett said he only interposed objections such as conscience and duty had compelled him.

After some debate, the resolution was tabled, and the Virginia delegation was sworn in, and other delegations.

Mr. Stevens of Va. moved that the name of Mr. Butler be inserted in the place of Mr. Lehman of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McClelland objected to Mr. Thayer being sworn in as a member from Oregon.

The question on Mr. Dailey's right as a delegate from Nebraska was postponed, and the House proceeded to elect a clerk.

Mr. Blair nominated Mr. Pomeroy. Mr. Mallory nominated Mr. Ethridge. Mr. Faulkner nominated Mr. Dieberick.

The ballot resulted—Ethridge 94, Pomeroy 41, Dieberick 22, Florence 2.

A resolution was adopted appointing a joint committee to wait on the President and inform him that Congress was ready to receive any communication.

The House fixed noon as the hour of meeting.

Mr. Vallandigham gave notice of a bill to repeal the tariff act of 1861, and revise that of 1858.

Mr. Stevens presented a petition of Mr. Butler contesting the seat of Mr. Lehman. Adjourned.

THE NEW CONGRESS.

The senate consists of forty-six members since the withdrawal of the rebel senators.

Of this number thirty-two are republicans. We have included in the senate list the names of Senator Nicholson of Tennessee, and Senators Polk and Johnson of Missouri, but it is quite possible that these gentlemen will not appear. In the event of their absence, the senate will stand thirty-two republicans to eleven democrats.

The number of members of the house of representatives is reduced from two hundred and thirty-seven to one hundred and eighty. Of these, one hundred and three are republicans, with one district in Pennsylvania and two in California to hear from.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

This important document reached here at 15 minutes before 12 o'clock, and was placed in the hands of our compositors immediately. At half-past 1 it was in type. We publish it as soon as it can be issued, without awaiting our afternoon telegraphic report.

From the Second Regiment.

CAMP NEAR WASHINGTON, July 1st, 1861.

EDITORS GAZETTE.—It is estimated that there are about 3000 troops arriving daily in the city, who go into camp within three miles of the capital.

If what everybody says is true the second Wisconsin regiment "takes them all down." We are encamped along side of the Texas rangers, a noble body of cavalry. They quarter here through the day, and at night go to Alexandria, to serve as picket guards. They "pick up" some of the rebels every night and lodge them in jail.

The view from the top of the capitol is very grand. A large extent of beautiful country can be seen, and in the midst of it one hundred thousand soldiers are encamped. Their white tents can be seen scattered for miles on either side of the city.

There was an alarm the other night which called us all out. The signal was three guns and the ringing of the bell. "You'd better believe" the Wisconsin boys were out, in line of battle mighty quick. The alarm was without cause, but the promptness with which the troops turned out shows that we are ready for Jeff. Davis, "or any other man."

It was not true that our regiment was attacked in Baltimore, as we passed through, as has been reported. We were well prepared for an attack, having received our arms at Harrisburg; they were loaded and ready. But I saw little excitement on the street as we marched through the city. At one corner were gathered about 400 Union men and women, who sang the "Star Spangled Banner" for our benefit.

The army is kept drilling very thoroughly. The most animated sight is the drill of the flying artillery, whose evolutions are very astonishing to those not accustomed to them. I have seen them load their cannon when the horses were upon a full run, stop and fire, and on they would go, and in a few minutes would be half a mile away, ready for another fire.

It is my turn to cook for our mess, and I must stop and get them supper.

A. E. L.

MAD DOG.—A dog evidently rabid passed through Main street, going north, last night about six o'clock. He was a large brown mastiff, apparently a farmer's dog, and bit a number of dogs as he went on his way. He was pursued, but managed to conceal himself in the neighborhood of the railroad bridge. There is not the slightest doubt in the minds of all who saw the animal that he was mad, and measures should be immediately taken to secure all the dogs running loose in the city from doing harm. Let the proper officers attend to it without delay.

We learn that a rabid dog was seen on the east side of the river, below the Blind Institute, yesterday afternoon. He bit two dogs belonging to Mr. J. G. Alden and Mr. Davis, who immediately killed them. Perhaps the dog seen in the city was the same one, and if so, he must have done considerable damage on his way up to this city. People on the river road, on the east side, should look to the matter and secure their dogs or kill them, which is the most certain way of disposing of them.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. Mr. Anderson from Chicago, will preach in the Congregational church to-morrow morning, at the usual hour of service.

THE ARMY BEEF CONTRACTS.—We observe that a rumor prevails in Chicago that Hugh Maher, esq., who lately took the contract to supply beef for the army in Washington, is likely to make a failure and throw up his contract.—Cleveland Herald.

Mr. Maher has not thrown up his contract, nor is he likely to make a failure. He is, and has been for two weeks, buying cattle for the government.—Chicago Journal.

BUTLER.—Anybody knowing the whereabouts of Edward Butler, of the 6th Co., O., will confer a great favor upon his brother, John M. Butler, of Albany, New York, by advising him of the same. The said Edward Butler left Ohio for California some six years ago, and has not been heard from since. Western papers please copy.

Mr. Chandler gave notice he should to-morrow introduce a bill to confiscate property of all governors of states, members of legislatures, judges of courts, all military officers who are at rank of lieutenant, who shall take a part against the government of the United States, and to disqualify them from holding offices of trust under the government.

Such property to be applied to restore to Union men in rebel states any losses they may have suffered.

The resignation of the clerk of senate sent in yesterday was Jas. Nicholson, not Mr. Dickens.

House.—Mr. Crittenden appeared and took the usual oath.

Ex-Congressman Ball, of Ohio, was elected sergeant at arms.

Goodnow, of New York, was elected door-keeper. Rev. Mr. Stoughton was elected chaplain.

CHRONICLE.

DISLIKES THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—A subject of Queen Victoria called yesterday at the office of the clerk of the circuit court, in this city, and withdrew his application for naturalization papers, on the ground that he did not like the sentiments of the Declaration of Independence which he had heard read on the 4th of July. He was more consistent than some who pretend to reverence "the declaration," but find fault with the "glittering generality" that all men are created equal.

Col. Butler, the brother of the general, states that there are about six hundred contraband negroes in the service of the government at Old Point and vicinity. They are found to be highly useful as laborers, as well as spies. The prospect of becoming free makes them equal, if not superior, to white men in digging trenches and in other severe labor, while their knowledge of the country—land and water—as well as of the people who inhabit it, renders them invaluable as guides.

SUPREME COURT.—July 3, No. 22 argued and No. 21 argument completed.

There was a refreshing shower yesterday north of us, at Milton, Whitewater, etc.

WHAT IS WANTED.—A good soaking rain is much needed.
